A Snapshot of St. Joseph Hospital

St. Joseph Hospital is a Catholic not-for-profit, full-service, health care facility located in Eureka, California. The hospital's scope of services includes cancer, cardiac, emergency/trauma, imaging, maternity and infant care, neurosciences, orthopaedics and more.

St. Joseph Hospital works in partnership with Redwood Memorial Hospital, located in Fortuna and is part of St. Joseph Health Northern California, an integrated delivery network of hospitals, outpatient facilities, affiliated physicians, home and community care in northern California. Our leading edge technology and outstanding medical team ensure Humboldt County residents receive the best care possible close to home.

Continuing a legacy of compassionate service

St. Joseph Hospital is committed to extending its role in the community far beyond the traditional medical model. Since 1920, we've partnered with schools, community groups and local organizations to extend our care beyond our walls and meet the changing needs of all who make their home in Humboldt, including our most vulnerable neighbors. In Calendar Year 2018, we reinvested more than $8.8 million into our community to care for the poor, low income, uninsured and underinsured.
